v.) No. 4:17-cv-2825-JAR
CINDY GRIFFITH,)
Respondent.)

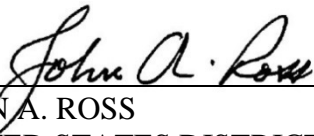

In the case at bar, petitioner has presented non-frivolous allegations in his petition. However, he has demonstrated, at this point, that he is well-able to present his claims to the Court, and it therefore cannot be said that he would substantially benefit from the appointment of counsel. In addition, neither the factual nor the legal issues appear complex, and there is no indication that petitioner's claims involve information that is not readily available to him. However, the Court recognizes that the relevant circumstances may change as the case progresses. The Court will therefore deny the motion for the appointment of counsel, without prejudice. If appropriate at a later time, petitioner may file a motion to appoint counsel that addresses the relevant factors.

Accordingly,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that petitioner Dennis R. Nash's motion for the appointment of counsel (Docket No. 3) is DENIED without prejudice.

Dated this 7th day of December, 2017.
